Life-long Learning Designed by Residents for Residents

All of our residents have a history of expertise to share. Do you have experience from your years of work that you wish everyone knew about? What is your expertise? How has the industry you were involved in changed with the times? Where have you traveled? How did it change you? Do you have a hobby that you love? Are you a collector? Do you make things? Are you willing to share your interest?

WE ARE INTERESTED IN YOU!

*We will support your class or lecture with technical equipment, advertising, guidance, and venues to fit your class and schedule as requested.
(See page 11 for coaching help)*

Share your expertise as part of Elim Park University!

The depth of experience and vast talent of our residents is incredible. We still have room in our next semester's schedule. If you are interested in teaching from your life experience, hobby, or skill, or if you know anyone willing to be a guest lecturer, please contact:

How do writers write a novel? We will discuss the elements of a novel and how some writers create memorable characters, exciting action, creative plots, and emotional scenes. What kind of writer are you? We all have a story to tell. How will you tell yours?

EPU WINTER 2023 COURSES

INDUSTRY

THE GOLDEN RULE: SMART BUSINESS

(Richard Boynton)

Monday, 3:00-4:00 pm

April 17 Nelson Hall

I gave my employees excellent wages and benefits in my business and I received amazing loyalty and effort in return. I was 100% honest with my customers and delivered what I promised. In return, my company eventually captured 95% of the world market in the type of instrument we produced.

Richard Boynton is an engineer who developed an astronomical photometer that led to the quasar's discovery. He was the founder and president of Space Electronics, Inc. for 46 years.

FROM BOULDERS TO BUICKS

(Wayne Detzler)

Limit 20!

Wednesdays 10:00 – 11:00 am (4 sessions)

April 12, 19, 26 & May 3. Spring Meadow, First Floor

For most of the twentieth century, the auto industry motivated Michigan. Henry Ford launched the idea of mass-production cars for working-class drivers. The northern peninsula provided iron ore, and the metropolitan area around Detroit gave a constant flow of manual labor. From boulders (iron ore) to Buicks, the auto industry thrived in Michigan.

Wayne Detzler grew up in Michigan with the history and influence of the auto industry all around him.

FLYING HIGH

Wednesday, 6:30 - 7:30 pm (4 sessions)

April 19, 26, May 3, 10. Nelson Hall

An airline stewardess and three pilots share their personal experiences of flying from widely differing viewpoints. Fly with them as they tell us about their experiences in commercial and private flying and the science of flight.

April 19 - “Being a Stewardess” - Irene Schaeffer

April 26 - “The Science of Aircraft and Rocket Flight”

- Richard Boynton

May 3 - “Sail Plane, etc.” - Bert Beauchemin

May 10 - “The Adventures of Flying” - Clay Norman

Tuesdays, 11:00 - 12:00 Noon. (6 sessions)

April 11, 18, 25; May 2, 9, 16.

Mallard Mill, Second floor, Activity Room.

Our souls are like chapels in our personalities where God meets us and we form covenants of shared responsibilities. Through poetry and scripture, our group will imagine how we and God make faith decisions in childhood, young adulthood, midlife, and older years.

John Afman is a retired pastor and marriage and family therapist. He served churches in New York, Pennsylvania, and Connecticut. He also taught. He taught counseling courses at Central Connecticut State University.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST (Part 2)

(Grace McClain)

Limited to 15!

Thursdays, 10:30 - 11:30 am. (8 sessions)

April 13, 20, 27; May 4, 11, 18, 25; June 1.

Mallard Mill, Second floor, Activity Room.

We will study Chapters 9-22 of The Revelation of Jesus Christ, written by the Apostle John, to quote verse 1a of chapter one: “The revelation of Jesus Christ which God gave to Him to show His servants things which must shortly come to pass” and the last part of verse 3, “for the time is now.” This study is of a literal interpretation allowing for symbolism, figures of speech, etc.

Grace McClain has taught Bible studies for over fifty years. She is the author of five books.
